Kevin Cottam is a Global Nomad Keynote Speaker, Executive Coach and Author. Based in Singapore with outposts in Canada and Lisbon, his mission is to inspire and encourage individuals to remove borders and expand their mindset: to embrace The Nomadic Mindset.

From his early beginnings as a champion figure skater, a former elite figure skating choreographer for world and Olympic champions, and a director of large-scale productions such as the 1988 Olympic Closing Ceremonies, Kevin has naturally sought to expand his students' and audiences' creativity and flexibility by presenting story-rich visual experiences. Today, he continues his mission by inspiring leaders in multinational enterprises (e.g., Thales, Givaudan, Nestle) and public sector (European Union).

He is author of the leadership book, The Nomadic Mindset: Never Settle...for Too Long and Aha, Mother's Pearls.
